

We Are

We are stardust traveling to the outer limits of the universal mind and beyond configurations of science to ascend into the mysteries of Divine Love.

We are courageous souls transcending through the metaphysical planes of our ancestral beauty to birth dreams of peace into actions of bravery.

We are spiritual adventurers constantly questing for truth woven with knowledge while our senses needlepoint emotions to vibrate back to the origins of Time.

We are both the Alpha and the Omega perfectly paralleled within the cortex of nature to be kissed upon the lips of Heaven.

We are the embodiment of all life lessons given onto one another surging through every vein, pulsating in every sound, magnified in every vein, pulsating in every sound, magnified in every moment of breath.
